

INTERNATIONAL SHORT PROGRAM

FROM CONCEPT TO CALL: EU PROPOSAL WRITING WEEK

Overview

The Program is an intensive training initiative to support the development of advanced competences in European project design and proposal writing, with a specific focus on Horizon Europe collaborative actions.

The program is grounded in the understanding that effective EU project design today requires more than technical expertise, calling for the integration of scientific vision, project management skills and strong international networking.

Objectives

The main objective of the International Short Program is to provide participants with operational and methodological tools to understand, write, and manage collaborative research proposals, while also strengthening networking skills within a multicultural context.

Target Audience

The program is open to:

- academic, technical and administrative staff, researchers and students from universities, including participants joining through Erasmus+ Staff Mobility;
